12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 (In the robing room)

2 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. This is District
3 Judge Pauley. You're on a speakerphone in my robing room and a 4 court reporter is now present, recording what's being said. I 5 understand from my law clerk that there are a large number of 6 participants in this call; and, Mr. Reilly, since you initiated
7 this call, I'm going to ask you, after the call is over, to fax
8 to my chambers a list of the participants so that the court 9 reporter can include them as appearances on the face of the 10 transcript.

11 Do you understand?

12 MR. REILLY: I do, your Honor, of course.

13 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Reilly, it's your dime. Do 14 you want to be heard?

15 MR. REILLY: All right. Thank you, your Honor.

16 I hope you have seen Mr. Ingber's letter that was 17 filed this morning also. I think it sets the dispute squarely 18 in front of you. We obviously have a dispute about whether my 19 letter is an appropriate method to address the Court. I'm glad 20 to address that and recognize that it's an unusual situation 21 and thank the Court for allowing us to speak.

22 The reason that we took this approach is that in light
23 of the letter from Mr. Ingber that I received Friday afternoon
24 and my extensive conversation with him over the weekend, it 25 became apparent to me that this deposition that we have

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 scheduled for Thursday was not going to occur unless the Court
2 was asked to get involved. I don't need to go through all the 3 details of that phone call but it was a very long phone call.
4 Mr. Ingber and I spoke quite frankly about the disputes and his 5 concerns.

6 And the reason, frankly, that we are submitting this 7 to the Court at this point, in response to Mr. Ingber's comment 8 that my letter is late -- I'm sorry, that my letter is -- 9 because I think his letter was late. But setting that aside -- 10 and if the Court wants me to address the procedures, I'll be 11 glad to in more detail -- setting that aside, what we became 12 convinced of is that the settlement proponents do not want to,
13 and do not I believe intend to, proceed with deposition
14 discovery until the Second Circuit rules.

15 Mr. Ingber can obviously comment on that, but the 16 practical fact of every part of the conversation that I had 17 with him Sunday night was that there would be no deposition on 18 Thursday, that my impression was he was not going to file a 19 motion for protective order, which I think were his two 20 options, either show up or file motions, and then if in fact we 21 agreed to everything that he suggested, we would not have a 22 formal agreement that a deposition would ever occur. And as a 23 result of that, it seemed to me that they were granting 24 themselves a de facto cancelation of the deposition and an 25 extension of the deadline for us to complete discovery.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 That is what I was convinced of, and I am still 2 convinced of that. And faced with this Court's scheduling 3 order and this Court's clear directive that you do have 4 jurisdiction and that discovery is to continue, we felt the 5 only way to proceed was to ask the Court to give us guidance on 6 this.

7 I'm sure the Court recalls that on November 4th you
8 issued your scheduling order. On that date you indicated you 9 would supervise discovery in this action pending the Court of 10 Appeals' decision in the Second Circuit, and that discovery was 11 to proceed according to the schedule that you indicated. We 12 have been complying with that. All of the written discovery 13 that we issued was issued on the date that you allowed that.
14 And the third item was that depositions could occur after 15 January 17th, so we intended to proceed with the 30(b)(6) 16 notice depositions on the 19th, with the view that that was an 17 efficient and effective way for us to get an idea fundamentally 18 of what activity the trustee engaged in.

19 And we have not yet received any written or formal 20 document responses to our written discovery. I now can tell 21 the Court that we have a protective order that is agreed to by 22 my client and many of the intervenors. Not all of them have 23 yet signed off on it and some of them have some concerns about 24 some nuances individual to them, but we are still awaiting the 25 document production and our belief was that, let's get the

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 skeleton chronology clear in our minds so that we know on what 2 date -- and who is participating in the process of this 3 particular settlement process.

4 The context of this, again, is that Bank of New York
5 Mellon and the institutional investors have gone to the Court
6 and seek relief that includes a finding that they acted in good 7 faith, a finding that the terms of the settlement agreement are 8 reasonable and seek a court order to that effect. And we on 9 the institutional investor side, collectively I believe, want 10 to know more about that. And in order to make sure we get that 11 done in what I think all would agree is a condensed discovery 12 process, we thought we had to move forward now.

13 The proposal that Mr. Ingber made to me over the 14 weekend, in essence, was let's get documents exchanged, let's 15 identify any discovery disputes, but let's not do any 16 depositions until the Second Circuit rules, which, as we all 17 know, could be February 24th, but there's no guarantee of that.
18 I've spoken to counsel in the Greenwich case, and in that case
19 the Court held a hearing and then granted itself or requested 20 an extension for the parties; and it was, as I understand it, 21 many weeks or months before the Court issued its order on a 22 jurisdictional question.

23 We have a discovery cutoff of April 17th. All fact 24 discovery should be completed by then, and if I agree to 25 Mr. Ingber's approach, which was in essence formally putting

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 back the depositions, talking about what our disputes are, it 2 wasn't even clear from that that we were going to present those 3 issues to the Court for resolution; we would be, at best, if 4 the Second Circuit ruled on February 24th, a month and a half 5 or so out, assuming the Court confirms your ruling on 6 jurisdiction, we'd have roughly 50 days to complete what is a 7 substantial amount of fact discovery. And we could not be in 8 that position, we didn't want to be in that position, and as a 9 consequence we reached out to the Court.

10 Now that I have seen Mr. Ingber's letter, I think the 11 fundamental issue is whether or not we can move forward with 12 depositions before the Second Circuit rules. All of the other 13 sort of logistic and procedural complaints about where we are, 14 I think, are minor and, frankly, as I told Mr. Ingber on the 15 call Sunday, all logistic issues can be dealt with. We have 16 experienced counsel here, we have an experienced Court; it's 17 really not a question of how is a deposition going to proceed.
18 My belief is that any deposition in this case will have one 19 speaker do 80 to 90 percent of the questioning and the other 20 parties will have an opportunity to supplement questions on 21 topics that were covered and ask new questions that were 22 covered. And for the most part, that ought to be able to be 23 done within the durational rules that apply. So that's the big 24 picture.

25 The key thing again, the letter that I got from
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 Mr. Ingber on the 13th was the first time that they had 2 indicated they were not going to appear for the deposition.
3 And the second to last sentence in it, I think, states clearly 4 what their view is, and it states, "The difference is in 5 procedural rules that would govern any deposition in state 6 court reinforce the conclusion that the intervenor's deposition 7 of BNY's corporate representative should not proceed until the 8 Second Circuit rules on the Court's jurisdiction."

9 We do not believe that anything this Court has said 10 would support that, and believe that it's time to move forward 11 and find out what we can find out in order to comply with 12 discovery.

13 It is plainly true that even if the Second Circuit 14 found that the Court didn't have jurisdiction, that we would 15 still be entitled in discovery in the state court, we would 16 still be entitled to the trustee's deposition, we would still 17 be entitled to know the chronology of the settlement
18 negotiations and who participated in them and what alternatives 19 were considered by the trustee and what concessions were made 20 by the trustee. So, to me, I don't quite get why we can't move 21 forward at this point when in fact -- and I think Mr. Ingber 22 will concede that we're entitled to discovery and that even if 23 we got sent back, that would happen.

24 So big picture, your Honor: We'd ask that we move
25 forward with the deposition on Thursday with the topics that I

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 had identified. And I saw the Court had asked for the 2 deposition notice, so hopefully you have that before you and I 3 just wanted to give you some background as to our thinking on 4 this deposition notice.

5 We did circulate these topics amongst the intervenors.
6 And I don't want to state that every single one had input or 7 participated in the choices, but we certainly had a good 8 representative group help us identify these topics, and I think 9 I'm comfortable saying that they cover the majority, if not 10 every topic that would ultimately be covered in deposition in 11 this case. So, first of all, we tried to make sure that it 12 covered the issues.

13 Secondly, I believe that a 30(b)(6) approach is an 14 effective and efficient way, particularly in a setting where 15 you've got condensed discovery, to get the information, to find 16 out what the trustee's position is about why they entered into 17 settlement and understand some of the opaque terms in the 18 agreement, like how much are people going to get paid and how 19 are the distributions going to be made, and at what point did 20 Bank of America pull out of this settlement. So that was our 21 fundamental thoughts.

22 The second thought was that we would try and put 23 together topics that made sense on a particular day so that we 24 could be sure Bank of New York Mellon could identify a witness 25 who would be comfortable talking about topics that were

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 related. So the first day, which was to be Thursday, was 2 really about the activities of the trustee -- what did you do 3 in this process, who did you talk to, what did you look at,
4 what did you consider, what did you reject? And that's 5 fundamentally topic number 4, the respective actions taken by 6 the Bank of New York Mellon.

7 Mr. Ingber was concerned that we would be delving into 8 settlement communication issues, which is topic number 1, and 9 was noted for that day. I assured him that I understood that 10 that issue was before this Court. The Court now should have 11 our letter, joint letter, that sets forth the parties'
12 respective positions on the discoverability of the settlement 13 communications. I assured him I would not suggest questions or 14 inquire into that area and that if he felt that I was getting 15 close to that particular area, that he should let me know and 16 that I would honor his objections in that way.

17 So I think we have tried as best we could to move 18 forward with our fundamental approach and not have the bank 19 trustee's concerns ignored.

20 The other question that I see from Mr. Ingber's letter 21 is meeting and conferring. When I talked to Mr. Ingber Sunday 22 night -- and candidly it was a difficult, first part of the 23 conversation was difficult but it was extensive -- I offered to 24 go through his letter in detail and he candidly, and I 25 accepted, said that he was at his inlaws' home and didn't have

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 it in front of him and so we did not go over the subjects, the 2 topical objections, but we did go through every single logistic 3 objection.

4 And those included the questions of multiple 5 questioners at the deposition. I told him I didn't think that 6 was an issue.

7 A significant concern of his is that this notice
8 wasn't signed off by all intervenors. That's true, but as I 9 said, I think most of the intervenors had input. And I've 10 talked to intervenor counsel, they can chime in, but I do 11 believe that the majority of the intervenor counsel would agree 12 that they're not going to issue another notice that's identical 13 to this on the same topics. I think some people were hoping to 14 reserve the right to perhaps issue another notice on a new 15 topic and the Court could easily address that question because 16 I think that's one that at this stage I'm not speaking for all 17 the group anyway but I think that's a valid concern on 18 trustee's counsel's point.

19 The protective order issue, as I said, we've got that 20 in front of the Court now. Or we'll have that in front of the 21 Court now and Mr. Ingber has agreed that we will expeditiously 22 ask that that be entered amongst those parties who have agreed
23 to sign off on it. It's most of the intervenors at this point, 24 and that could be in place by Thursday.

25 The one issue that we did not -- and I'm not

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 suggesting we reached resolution on the others but I think the 2 one issue we probably could reach resolution on if we were 3 ordered to sit down and talk -- but if we couldn't it would be 4 just five minutes for the Court to hear the issues and resolve 5 it -- is just whether or not we're entitled to more than one 6 30(b)(6) deposition. We noticed it that way because again we 7 thought it was efficient, we think that there are a number of 8 topics that were all together. And Mr. Ingber has said to me 9 that he won't go forward with this deposition without knowing 10 whether there are other 30(b)(6) depositions coming down the 11 road. And I understand that; I don't agree with it but I 12 appreciate that that's his concern.

13 We also spread out the notice that there would be 14 two-week intervals between the sessions, that the first one was 15 on the 19th of January, the second one wouldn't be until 16 February 2nd, the third one would be February 16th and the 17 fourth would be March 1st of this year. And by that time, we 18 would have had, I believe, a clear, hopefully clear, 19 understanding of the trustee's position on why the settlement
20 ought to be approved.

21 I didn't mean to suggest in the notice, and don't want 22 to suggest to the Court, that we don't expect to also take 23 depositions of individuals who may have unique knowledge about 24 the process, and that obviously includes some of the people 25 identified by Mr. Ingber on the 26(a) disclosures who have

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 knowledge of the process as well as institutional investors 2 that also actively participated in the negotiations.

3 So, big picture --

4 THE COURT: Quite frankly, you've given the refrain
5 "big picture" several times. I have the big picture.

6 MR. REILLY: All right.

7 THE COURT: And I want to first hear -- before I hear
8 from Mr. Ingber, I'd like to hear from Mr. Cyrulnik because I 9 don't see Walnut Place taking any position in this matter.

10 MR. CYRULNIK: Your Honor, Owen Cyrulnik for Walnut
11 Place.

12 I don't have any objection to the 30(b)(6) notice that 13 AIG served. We agree with the topic and, as Mr. Reilly
14 represented, we're willing to agree to address Mr. Ingber's 15 concerns not to serve any deposition notice that duplicates the 16 topics on that 30(b)(6).

17 We're in the process of working with Mr. Reilly to 18 resolve some coordination issues that I don't think we'll have 19 to burden the Court with. But for now, we're comfortable with 20 the deposition notice and we agree that it's an appropriate 21 deposition that should be taken, and we also certainly agree 22 that the Court has jurisdiction, and that in order for the 23 schedule to be maintained as the Court set it, discovery must 24 proceed before the Second Circuit rules.

25 THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Cyrulnik.

Speakerphone Conference

1 Mr. Ingber?

2 MR. INGBER: Thank you, your Honor, and good morning.

3 I hear an echo, so I would just ask all counsel to 4 mute their lines to try to avoid that. I'll do my best to work 5 through the echo.

6 Your Honor, Mr. Reilly said that there were two 7 options for the trustee, either to show up on Thursday or to 8 file a motion for a protective order. We disagree with 9 Mr. Reilly. We think ultimately if the parties can't reach 10 resolution of the issues that we have raised in our letter to 11 the Court, we would need to file a motion for protective order.
12 But we think there's a third option here, and that option was 13 to meet and confer. As contemplated by the rules, that's how 14 litigants in a typical case would operate, and that was the 15 purpose of the very detailed letter that we sent to Mr. Reilly
16 last week. We told him that we invited him to meet and confer 17 about those issues, they were substantive, they were 18 logistical, they were procedural, they were real concerns that 19 the trustee had.

20 We did speak on Sunday night. And the reason we 21 didn't get into substantive topics and we just discussed 22 logistics is because he was on the phone and I was on the 23 phone. He asked to have a call on Sunday night, I agreed to 24 it, we spoke for two hours. Ms. Patrick, representing the 25 institutional investors, wasn't on the call, and none of the

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 intervenor respondents or objectors were on that call.

2 What I told Mr. Reilly was that this is a productive 3 conversation we're having, this is why we sent the letter, we 4 think we should meet and confer again this week. I offered to 5 do it on Tuesday. And then we heard from Mr. Reilly the next 6 day, that he would be either calling the Court or sending a 7 letter to the Court raising this issue. And we asked him to 8 meet and confer again this Thursday and to send us a letter 9 explaining the issues that he had with our January 13th letter.

10 So for us, this is an issue of process. We do not 11 object to any depositions taking place before the Second 12 Circuit rules. We have not refused to move forward with 13 depositions. We think that as a practical matter, that might 14 be the best approach because there are a number of issues that 15 the parties need to work through.

16 And I reinforced this point to Mr. Reilly on Sunday.
17 He asked me pointblank, are you telling me that you're not 18 going to proceed with the depositions until the Second Circuit
19 rules? And I said no. I said, let's meet and confer, let's 20 try to work through these issues, I don't know whether we can 21 work through every one of these logistical and substantive 22 issues but let's take a stab at it; and if we can, we will 23 think about making someone available at the end of January and 24 early February but we've first got to work through these 25 issues.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 That's what I told Mr. Reilly on Sunday, and that's 2 our position, your Honor. But the reason we think that as a 3 practical matter it makes sense to wait on this 30(b)(6)
4 deposition and other depositions until the Second Circuit rules
5 is because there's a number of discovery disputes that I 6 anticipate the parties will have and that will come up in these 7 depositions.

8 Now, there's one issue that the parties have teed up 9 for the Court, and that's the question of discoverability of 10 settlement communications. But we served our responses to the 11 objectors' document requests, and there are a number of 12 objectionable requests. We have made our objections known.
13 There haven't been a meet-and-confer about any of those issues.
14 We're happy to meet and confer. The onus is not on the trustee 15 to call up the objectors and say we have objected to your 16 document requests, if you don't agree with our objections, 17 let's have a meet-and-confer and talk through them. If the 18 objectors' were interested in having a discussion with them, we 19 would have assumed that they would have called and started that 20 discussion.

21 What we don't want to happen is for depositions to 22 take place piecemeal and then for the objectors to come forward 23 and say, hey, you guys didn't produce these documents, and for 24 us to say, well, we objected to those documents, to producing 25 those documents, you didn't raise those issues, and then they

1 go ahead and raise the issue with the Court, the deposition is 2 behind us, and then they ask for a second bite at the apple.
3 Those are the types of issues that we're trying to avoid.

4 With respect to this 30(b)(6) notice in particular, we 5 have laid out all of the issues that we have with respect to 6 this notice. I want to point out just a few, your Honor.

7 Number one, it's signed by a handful of the 42 groups 8 of objectors. That's an issue, from our perspective. We have 9 talked about trying to avoid piecemeal discovery, and it's very 10 important to us that we do this in a coordinated fashion.

11 It strikes us as fairly obvious that the objectors 12 themselves aren't coordinated, by virtue of the fact that only 13 a few of them signed this notice in particular; by virtue of 14 the fact that they haven't coordinated on how to proceed with 15 depositions generally, the logistics of that, they haven't 16 communicated that to us. Mr. Reilly, on the call on Sunday and 17 in the call this morning, your Honor, said that it's his 18 position that he'll speak for 80 percent of the time and others
19 will speak for 20 percent of the time, and it may be the case
20 that other intervenor respondents or objectors will file a 21 subsequent 30(b)(6) notice, and that's an issue that he 22 recognizes that the trustee has and one that needs to be worked 23 through.

24 He's making representations to me -- he made 25 representations to me in the call on Sunday night about how he

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 would like things to proceed, that he would agree not to 2 redepose a 30(b)(6) witness based on newly produced documents.
3 But we don't know what the other objectors and intervenors,
4 what their view is on these issues, and it's very important 5 that we all get in a room and we talk through these issues.

6 We need a comprehensive plan, your Honor, about how 7 depositions are going to be taken. Is Mr. Reilly going to take 8 the lead? If so, that's fine. Are the objectors in agreement 9 about who's going to be deposed? Are the objectors going to 10 seek another 30(b)(6) deposition? If they don't like the 11 questions that Mr. Reilly asks, will they seek to subsequently 12 depose that witness again?

13 These are issues that are of significant importance to 14 the trustee and should be important to anyone participating in 15 this process, because we want to make sure that the process is 16 efficient, is productive, and achieves the goal that everybody 17 wants here, which is to give the objectors the information to 18 which they're entitled.

19 So, on the narrow question of whether we should go 20 forward tomorrow, we have raised the concerns that we have in 21 our letters, the small minority of objectors who seem to want 22 to go forward with this, they asked for the deposition 23 protocol. A protective order, when we sent our letter on 24 Friday, hadn't been agreed to, and as Mr. Reilly pointed out, 25 some of the objectors still have concerns about that protective

1 order.

2 We have issues -- and this could take probably many 3 hours to do, but we could go through each of the topics and 4 explain the issues that we have with many of these topics and 5 why we don't think they're relevant to the question that's 6 before the Court.

7 We have mentioned, your Honor, in the letter that the 8 deposition is scheduled for four days. We understand there's a 9 lot that the objectors may want to delve into, and we have an 10 open mind about the duration of the deposition. But under the 11 rules, the objectors are entitled to seven hours with one 12 witness, and we may well put forward one corporate 13 representative to testify on these issues. That's not to say 14 that we wouldn't agree to more time, but it's an issue that 15 needs to be worked out and it's an issue that Mr. Reilly and 16 other objectors assumed would be a nonissue. They scheduled 17 the deposition for four days without reaching out and having a 18 discussion about whether that made sense and a discussion about 19 the topics.

20 We mentioned document review and production. It's not 21 just an issue with respect to newly produced documents and the 22 question of whether objectors are going to seek to redepose
23 Bank of New York witnesses. We also need these documents for a 24 30(b)(6) deposition. It's not as if this is a deposition of a 25 single bank witness about that witness' personal knowledge of

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 issues, where we can produce the documents pertaining to that 2 witness and have a fulsome deposition. This is a deposition 3 notice that was 26 topics and the corporate representative 4 rightly will not have personal knowledge about each of those 26
5 topics, assuming all 26 topics are part of this deposition.
6 It's important for us to make sure that we have been through 7 all the documents and that those documents are produced so that 8 we can adequately prepare our witnesses to give the information 9 that Mr. Reilly is looking for.

10 So those are the key issues that we have with this 11 notice. This was the purpose of the letter that we sent to 12 Mr. Reilly on January 13th. What I have proposed to 13 Mr. Reilly, and what I have proposed to all the objectors on 14 this call now, and a proposal that I would make if there were a 15 meet-and-confer taking place, is that we try to work through 16 these issues, we try to deal with whatever document issues 17 we're going to have now, we discuss deposition logistics, we 18 understand who's taking the lead, what the position of each of 19 the objectors is going forward with respect to depositions, we 20 raise issues with the Court if we need to raise those issues 21 with the Court, and, if necessary, we brief those issues, and 22 then by then we believe we'll have a decision from the Second 23 Circuit. The Second Circuit has indicated as much; the merits 24 brief was filed yesterday on behalf of the Bank of New York and 25 the institutional investors, two separate briefs. Briefing

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 will be finished by February 9th and as I understand it, your 2 Honor, it is on the Court's calendar for the 13th; and by 3 statute, and I think by the Court's order, a decision will be 4 rendered by February 24th.

5 So over the next few weeks, we think that the parties 6 can work together in a very constructive fashion so that 7 whatever issues we have are vetted, are addressed to the Court,
8 and then can be resolved by the Court shortly after the Second 9 Circuit rules.

10 So for us this is more about process right now than 11 substance, although substance will be a key issue going 12 forward, as reflected, for example, in the settlement 13 communications letter that was jointly submitted by the 14 parties.

15 That's all I have for your, your Honor, but I'm 16 obviously happy to answer any questions that you have.

17 THE COURT: All right. Look, let me try to give all 18 of you some guidance at this point in time.

19 First, it seems to me that there is a little fault to 20 go all around. I don't understand why the trustee waited until 21 January 13 to lodge objections to the Rule 30(b)(6) notice that 22 was served in December. But at the same time, it's clear to me 23 from listening to counsel that there is a lack of coordination 24 here about how discovery is going to proceed. The very first 25 thing I want all of you to do is to meet and confer regarding

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

Speakerphone Conference

1 the document discovery that's still outstanding because it
2 strikes me that when it comes to a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition, 3 the trustee has a legitimate concern that he doesn't want to 4 have his client subjected to repeated multiple 30(b)(6)
5 depositions, seeing if the witness can come up with a different 6 answer to the same question.

7 Therefore, I think that the parties -- and now I'm 8 speaking to the objectors and the intervenors -- better get on 9 the same piece of music, because at the end of the day there 10 really should not be multiple 30(b)(6) depositions of the same 11 witnesses. There may need to be multiple 30(b)(6) witnesses to 12 cover a variety of topics but that's a different matter.

13 I also think that these substantive disputes, like the 14 issue that's been raised with me regarding the discoverability
15 of settlement discussions, should be, and can be, carefully
16 teed up. I tell you that the Court of Appeals has said that it 17 is going to make a determination in this matter in late 18 February. That is not that far off.

19 And in the end, when it comes to a substantive issue, 20 like any privilege attaching to settlement negotiations, the 21 outcome of such an application may be different in my court
22 than it would be in Judge Kapnick's court. So I think that it 23 may be appropriate for me to wait until the Second Circuit has 24 decided the issue before it. But that doesn't mean that 25 procedural matters can't be resolved and that depositions can't

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

12likbony Speakerphone Conference

1 go forward where the content is undisputed, because at the end
2 of the day nobody's being served by a delay in these 3 proceedings.

4 So I want you to meet and confer. I want a protective 5 order to be agreed to and submitted to me. It would be 6 foolhardy for the trustee to go forward with a deposition in 7 the absence of a protective order. These are things that need
8 to be discussed face to face and resolved. And to the extent 9 there's a dispute, you can present it to me and I'll act on it.
10 I haven't begun to dip into the settlement privilege question 11 that's been raised, but that is obviously a significant legal 12 question, and I may want some more briefing on that.

13 Now, the bottom line is, there will be no deposition 14 tomorrow, but I'm not staying depositions in this case because 15 I don't think that the prerequisites for going forward with the 16 deposition have been satisfied, namely a meet-and-confer. And 17 there certainly could be subjects on which the parties agree
18 and therefore a deposition could begin, but the ground rules 19 need to be worked out.

20 Are there any questions that the parties want to raise 21 with the Court while we're all together here on the record?
22 And just identify yourself.

23 MR. REILLY: It is Dan Reilly. And I understand
24 clearly what you're saying. We are scheduled to be in New York 25 tomorrow and would agree to do that tomorrow so we can keep it

1 all moving.

2 THE COURT: That's fine, Mr. Reilly. And I might 3 suggest that I guess I could understand why you'd rather talk
4 to Mr. Ingber on Sunday night than watch the Denver Broncos.

5 MR. REILLY: Oh, Judge, that hurt, that hurt.
6 Congratulations to the Giants.

7 THE COURT: Anything further from counsel?

8 MS. PATRICK: Your Honor, it's Cathy Patrick for the 9 institutional investors.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. Go ahead.

11 MS. PATRICK: The conference tomorrow that Mr. Reilly
12 is going to have, do you anticipate that all objectors -- I'm 13 terribly sorry for the echo -- that all objectors and 14 intervenors should be present for that for purposes of 15 coordination, or is that to continue to be binary?

16 THE COURT: Well, in the absence of having some 17 written agreement among the parties, that's a joint agreement; 18 it's hard for it to be binding on everyone if it's only a 19 binary discussion, but I don't think that that means that 20 everybody has to be present in the same room but they have to 21 be available to provide their input so that the trustee knows
22 that when he's sitting across the table talking to Mr. Reilly 23 or Mr. Cyrulnik or anyone else, that he's not going to have to 24 have the same conversation with 40 other parties.

25 MS. PATRICK: All right, thank you, your Honor. I

1 just wanted to understand our attendance.

2 THE COURT: That's fine.

3 Any other questions?

4 MR. INGBER: No, thank you, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Reilly, apart from submitting the list 6 of participants for the court reporters benefit, I'm going to 7 direct you to make arrangements to purchase this transcript.

8 MR. INGBER: All right, we'll do that.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MR. INGBER: Your Honor, if I could ask everyone who's 11 on the call to shoot me an email so I'm sure I have the right 12 list, I'd appreciate it.

13 THE COURT: That's fine.

14 All right, everyone.

15 COUNSEL: Thank you, your Honor.
