Re: In the Matter of the Application of Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, et. al.
For Judicial Instructions under CPLR Article 77
on the Administration and Distribution of a Settlement Payment

Dear Mr. Newman:

The Court has granted your application for permission to have Stephen M. Mertz, Esq., and Julie R. Landy, Esq., members of the bar of the State of Minnesota, appear pro hac vice in connection with this appeal.

At the top of the front cover of the brief, at the right, the following should appear:

"To be argued [submitted] by Stephen M. Mertz, Esq. (of the bar of the State of Minnesota) or [Julie R. Landy (of the bar of the Statr of Minnesota)] by permission of the Court."

At the end of the brief, after the name of the New York attorney for Wells Fargo, the names of Mr. Mertz and Ms. Landy should appear as follows:

Zachary G. Newman, Esq.
Pro Hac-Mertz and Landy

Stephen M. Mertz, Esq. (of the bar of the State of Minnesota) and Julie R. Landy (of the bar of the State of Minnesota) by permission of the Court.”

When the case is called on its appointed date, you should introduce Mr. Mertz or Ms. Landy and request that he or she be permitted to participate in the appeal. In addition, a copy of this letter must be submitted together with the notice of appearance on the day of oral argument.

Very truly yours,
