Re: Wells Fargo, National Association, et. v. n/a et al
Case: 2020-02716

Dear Mr. Greenberger:

The Court has granted your application for permission to have Isaac M. Gradman, Esq. and Edward P. Allison, Esq., members of the bar of the State of California, appear pro hac vice in connection with this appeal.

At the top of the front cover of the brief, at the right, the following should appear:

"To be argued [submitted] by Isaac M. Gradman, Esq. (of the bar of the State of California) or [Edward P. Allison (of the bar of the State of California)] by permission of the Court."

At the end of the brief, after the name of the New York attorney for the defendants-respondents DW Partner LP and Ellington Management Group, LLC the names of Mr. Gradman and Mr. Allinson should appear as follows:

David I. Greenberger, Esq.
Pro Hac-Gradman and Allinson

Isaac M. Gradman, Esq. (of the bar of the State of California) and Edward P. Allison, Esq. (of the bar of the State of California) by permission of the Court.”

When the case is called on its appointed date, you should introduce Mr. Gradman or Mr. Allison and request he be permitted to participate in the appeal. In addition, a copy of this letter must be submitted together with the notice of appearance on the day of oral argument.

Very truly yours,
